Dear Colleague:

I am happy to participate in the publication of a memorial volume in memory of my friend Academician N. M. Sissakian.

I have written the enclosed paper for this purpose. It is entitled Orthomolecular Methods in Medicine. I think that it is appropriate to the volume.

I apologize for the delay in answering your letter, which arrived while I was away from home for two months, on a trip to India and other countries.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Linus Pauling
